Guidelines for Communication with Sponsored Students

We strongly encourage sponsors to communicate with the children they support in order to directly guide their lives. But because our supporters often do not truly understand the situations of the children and their environment, we advise our supporters to communicate with the children through our office in China so that we can help to protect our supporters from false information or to advise how to handle specific situations.

Protection/Confidentiality Agreement

Agape Way observes the privacy conditions of data protection law when collecting, storing and processing the personal data you provide. You may request to see the information stored by Agape Way at any time and rectify any mistakes. Agape Way sees to it that everyone who deals with personal data is obliged to observe the conditions of data protection law. Protecting the rights of the children in our care is equally important to us. Therefore, we ask that you treat any information entrusted to you about your sponsored child/children/orphanage, discreetly and responsibly and not publish it or pass it to third parties outside of your immediate family. Sensitive information should not be mentioned to the child/children. By signing below, I acknowledge that I have received and accepted the data protection guidelines as outlined above.
